I am pleased to announce that Theo Noel de Tilly has joined the Ministry of Northern Development and Mines as the Sudbury and North Bay Area Teams Manager, Regional Economic Development Branch.

Theo brings over 31 years of diverse business development and stakeholder management experience to the ministry and brings a strong understanding of economic development principles and practices as he holds a Masters of Business Administration in Community Economic Development and is holds a professional designation as an Economic Developer.

Furthermore, for the last 16 years, Theo worked in economic development with the Federal Government in Northeastern Ontario.

Theo assumed his new responsibilities on November 7, 2016. He can be reached in the Sudbury office at (705) 564-4128, in the North Bay office at (705) 494-4176, or by e mail at theo.noeldetilly@ontario.ca.

Please join me in welcoming Theo to his new role.

About the Regional Economic Development Branch

The Regional Economic Development Branch is comprised of six integrated area teams that form the focal point for economic development service delivery in northern Ontario. Located throughout the North, branch staff work with northern communities, businesses, and other stakeholders, to identify economic development opportunities and to access government programs.
